

FELLOWSHIP PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

SUNDAY, JULY 12, 2026 ~ 11:00 AM WORSHIP

This is a glorious day! It is one which the Triune God has given that we, His holy ones, might gather together to offer up the worship that He desires. As you prepare your hearts this morning, remember that we are a congregation and not an audience. Let each of us purpose to come as a participant, not an observer. Engage your minds and lift your voices in the profession of your faith and the singing of God's praises. Bow your hearts along with those who lead us in prayer. Listen carefully as God speaks to you through the reading and preaching of His Word. The pastor and other leaders will help guide you, but worship is yours to do! May our worship now be delightful to our Savior and refreshing to our souls!

| Jesus, lover of my soul, let me to Thy bosom fly, while the nearer waters roll,while the tempest still is high: hide me, O my Savior, hide, till the storm of life ispast; safe into the haven guide, O receive my soul at last!Other refuge have I none, hangs my helpless soul on Thee; leave, ah! leave menot alone, still support and comfort me! All my trust on Thee is stayed, all my helpfrom Thee I bring; cover my defenseless head with the shadow of Thy wing.Plenteous grace with Thee is found, grace to cover all my sin; let the healingstreams abound; make and keep me pure within: Thou of life the fountain art, freelylet me take of Thee; spring Thou up within my heart, rise to all eternity. |                                                                         |                     |

| You foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you, before whose eyes Jesus Christ waspublicly portrayed as crucified? This is the only thing I want to find out from you: did youreceive the Spirit by the works of the Law, or by hearing with faith? Are you so foolish?Having begun by the Spirit, are you now being perfected by the flesh? Did you suffer somany things in vain—if indeed it was in vain? So then, does He who provides you with theSpirit and works miracles among you, do it by the works of the Law, or by hearing withfaith?Even so Abraham BELIEVED GOD, AND IT WAS RECKONED TO HIM AS RIGHTEOUSNESS.Therefore, be sure that it is those who are of faith who are sons of Abraham. The Scripture,foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand toAbraham, saying, “ALL THE NATIONS WILL BE BLESSED IN YOU.” So then those who are offaith are blessed with Abraham, the believer.For as many as are of the works of the Law are under a curse; for it is written, “CURSEDIS EVERYONE WHO DOES NOT ABIDE BY ALL THINGS WRITTEN IN THE BOOK OF THE LAW, TOPERFORM THEM.” Now that no one is justified by the Law before God is evident; for, “THERIGHTEOUS MAN SHALL LIVE BY FAITH.” However, the Law is not of faith; on the contrary,“HE WHO PRACTICES THEM SHALL LIVE BY THEM.” Christ redeemed us from the curse of theLaw, having become a curse for us—for it is written, “CURSED IS EVERYONE WHO HANGS ONA TREE”— in order that in Christ Jesus the blessing of Abraham might come to the Gentiles,so that we would receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |                                                                 |                      |

| <sup>1</sup> Pilate then took Jesus and scourged Him. <sup>2</sup> And the soldiers twisted together a crown ofthorns and put it on His head, and put a purple robe on Him; <sup>3</sup> and they began to come up toHim and say, “Hail, King of the Jews!” and to give Him slaps in the face. <sup>4</sup> Pilate came outagain and said to them, “Behold, I am bringing Him out to you so that you may know that Ifind no guilt in Him.” <sup>5</sup> Jesus then came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purplerobe. Pilate said to them, “Behold, the Man!” <sup>6</sup> So when the chief priests and the officerssaw Him, they cried out saying, “Crucify, crucify!” Pilate said to them, “Take Him your-selves and crucify Him, for I find no guilt in Him.” <sup>7</sup> The Jews answered him, “We have alaw, and by that law He ought to die because He made Himself out to be the Son of God.”<sup>8</sup> Therefore when Pilate heard this statement, he was even more afraid; <sup>9</sup> and he enteredinto the Praetorium again and said to Jesus, “Where are You from?” But Jesus gave him noanswer. <sup>10</sup> So Pilate said to Him, “You do not speak to me? Do You not know that I haveauthority to release You, and I have authority to crucify You?” <sup>11</sup> Jesus answered, “Youwould have no authority over Me, unless it had been given you from above; for this reasonhe who delivered Me to you has the greater sin.” <sup>12</sup> As a result of this Pilate made efforts torelease Him, but the Jews cried out saying, “If you release this Man, you are no friend ofCaesar; everyone who makes himself out to be a king opposes Caesar.”<sup>13</sup> Therefore when Pilate heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on thejudgment seat at a place called The Pavement, but in Hebrew, Gabbatha. <sup>14</sup> Now it was theday of preparation for the Passover; it was about the sixth hour. And he said to the Jews,“Behold, your King!” <sup>15</sup> So they cried out, “Away with Him, away with Him, crucify Him!”Pilate said to them, “Shall I crucify your King?” The chief priests answered, “We have noking but Caesar.”<sup>16</sup> So he then handed Him over to them to be crucified. |                                                                 |                      |
